I have completed my graduation in history Hons. from Zakir Hussain P.G. college, University of Delhi and post graduation from Ramjas college, University of Delhi. After that I have qualified NET J.R.F. and subsequently joined for Ph.D. in the field of labour history. I have also published my work on the concerned topic representing the British laws on child labour before independence. Presently I am continuing my work and working as an Assistant Professor in this college.
